EDEN EXPERIENCES

CFD offers consulting services to families. Remember a family can consist of husband, wife and children, or just husband and wife or mother and children or father and children or just an individual. CFD has a variety of encounter programmes that they offer depending on the needs of a given family. The offerings are as follows

- NBI family profiling
- Weekend getaways
- Family Conferences
- Cruise exercusions (regional and international)
- Ultimate family vision blueprint
- Family unity and appreciation
- Dancing Experiences
- Father and son encounters
- Mother and daughter encounters
- Boys & Girls bootcamp
- Mother's Day Experiences

These programmes are experiential and are run at the CFD centre in Johannesburg, South Africa. Some of the programmes are run offsite at other venues. Family Eden Experiences use leisure as a platform to experience family encounters. Families are taken out of their homes to a serene place which will enable them to be creative and innovative.

FAMILY PROFILE

NBI family profiling

is a tool created to measure a person's thinking preferences. This will help you to discover your own thinking preference and in doing so better understand yourself and those around you.

Benefit:

- understand your unique thinking preferences, communication style etc.
- better understand those you relate to on a daily basis
- understand and guide your children in relationships, study styles, communication, career choices etc.
- resolve conflicts in your personal and professional life
- choose your best course of study
- make the best choice when choosing a new career
- improve the level of creativity and leadership in your business
